

INTRODUCING

The online community exclusively for non-profit Executive Directors (EDs)

As an ED you KNOW the challenge of trying to do too much with too little time. Work/life balance is hard enough for most people, but EDs have the added dimension that it's NOT just a job.

EDs consistently indicate that the #1 resource they rely on is *their peers. EDLink delivers more and better access to your ED peers, around the corner and around the world, supplemented by information resources created specifically for EDs.

What will you find at EDLink?

- Active ED discussion forums
- Virtual Peer Learning Groups
- Virtual Mentor Program
- Resource library of articles specifically for EDs
- Professional development webinars
- Ask the Expert
- Resources from our global panel of EDLink Experts
- Peer Directory

Do you want to speak with other EDs about fundraising?
Do you have budget and planning questions?
Would you like to ask EDs for input on managing staff and board relationships?
Are you interested in learning about marketing and social media?
